PERSONAL

Honorable Earl Warren
Chief Justice of the United States
Washington, D. C. 20543

Dear Earl:

As you step down from your lengthy period of dedicated service as Chief Justice, I want to extend warmest best wishes to Mrs. Warren and to you for every possible happiness in your retirement years. You have contributed untiringly and unselfishly to furthering the best interests of the Nation, and your record of achievements will long stand as a monument to you.

Sincerely,

Edgar
